Report ...

Nowadays workshops have become an integral part of the college curriculum. These workshops provide students with a creative outlet to explore their artistic talent and develop their craft skills. In this report, we explored the setting of a flower arrangement and vegetable & Fruits carving workshop, the instructor's approach to teaching, and the students' experience in the workshop.

A flower arrangement and vegetable & Fruit carving workshop was organised by Department Head Dr. S. Vishnupriya to provide limitless opportunities for the creative minds.

Mr Kannan Ravi and Mr Shakul Hameed Chennai Amirtha's International Institute of Hotel Management (Assistant Professor – House Keeping Department/ freelancer&artist) were the Chief Guest and Primary mentor for this workshop.23 other staff members Ms. G. Nanthini, Ms. R. Sharmila Ms. S. Nandhini all Assistant Professors, Department of Nutrition and Dietetics and 1st years of Nutrition and Dietetics and interior design students were also involved in this program. The number of participants was considerable as students from every class were actively involved in this workshop.

The setting of the flower arrangement and vegetable & Fruit carving workshop is an essential aspect of the learning process. The workshop should be equipped with the necessary tools and materials required for the students to create their art pieces. These tools could range from paintbrushes, scissors, glue, and paper to more advanced tools such as carving knives. The availability of these tools allows students to explore different art forms and techniques.

The instructor's Mr Kannan Ravi on day 1 - 11-05-2023 approach to teaching played a crucial role in the success of the workshop. The instructor was found knowledgeable and experienced in the flower arrangement, and he was able to demonstrate different techniques to the students. The instructor also provided hands-on guidance to the students, ensuring they understood the techniques and can apply them to their art pieces. This approach helps students develop their skills and improve their confidence in their abilities. This workshop was filled with energy and passion.

On Day 2 - 12-05-2023 Mr Shakul Hameed handled the Vegetable and fruits carving session. Besides providing a fun-filled, colourful experience, the classes were aimed at developing proficiencies which could help them in their regular college/ family settings - such as basic cutting, colouring and carving skills — all of which were worked on using carving art as a medium. It was planned that the classes would be interspersed with specially designed short-duration workshops where he interacted with the students and familiarise them with diverse materials and themes as ways of learning. Both the teachers as well as the students took an active part in the workshop. They were filled with curiosity and enthusiasm. They actively responded to the instructor in every activity. The cooperation, discipline and punctuality reflected between the students and mentors made this workshop a great success.

The students' experience in the workshop is a testament to the success of the vegetable & Fruit carving workshop. Students' engagement level in the workshop was an important factor in determining the effectiveness of the workshop. The workshop was designed in such a way to encourage creativity and exploration, allowing students to express themselves freely.

In conclusion, this flower arrangement and vegetable & Fruit carving workshop provided students with an opportunity to develop their artistic skills and explore their creativity. The setting of the workshop, the instructor's approach to teaching, and the students' experience in the workshop were all turned to be the successful components of this learning process. Finally this successful workshop inspired the students to pursue their passion for flower arrangement and vegetable & Fruit carving craft and develop their skills further.

The main objective of this workshop was to cherish and value the local art form and cultural tradition. Students from various departments had taken part with great passion and vigour to learn skills, gain insights and experiences to help them grow and excel in their lives. Students were taught a wide range of skills- flower arranging skills, Vegetable carving and cutting methods and a lot many others. They were taught about sustainable environments and how extra waste can be used to create something useful.

Our college Secretary Mr. Feroze Sha and our Principal Dr.G.T.Vijayalakshmi delivered their talk. Many innovations were contributed by the students. They were divided into small groups. Many different types of arrangements using flowers and vegetables were taught to motivate the students to contract their limitations and expand their capabilities.

On the last day Of 12-05 -2023, all the works and performances of the students were displayed which was visualized by many students and other localities who were on the campus on that day. The final moments were truly a reflection of their creativity and the skills they have learnt through the workshop. Certificates were honoured to the students by the Principal.

REPORT

The PG & Research Department of Tamil of R.A. College for Women, Tiruvarur organized a seminar on 23,02,2023 at 10.30 a.m. The program began with a prayer song. The chief guest of this seminar was Prof. Dr. U.AliBava., Associate professor cum H.O.D Department of Tamil of Bharathidasan University .who was the key note speaker and he spoke on the "RESEARCH ETHICS" and collection of relevant materials for carrying out the research.

He further said that the topic for the research is very important. If the materials are not available or scarce for the choosen topic, it will be tough for the researcher to finish his/her research. The researchers must concentrate on the availability of the data. Then he/she should know which websites are feasible to get the books to carry out the research.

He made a note that The researchers must attend the seminars and symposiums to enhance their knowledge. The researchers must see the University portals in which the guidence and guidelines are provided.

The University portals provide the lists of names of journals and magazines and through them the ideas for research will be obtained. The data must prior be collected. While doing the research, the bibliographical details such as page number of the book, author's name and publication's name have to be mentioned in the thesis.

When the researcher wants to participate in the seminar, he / she should present the thesis which should be untold and unexplored sofar. The thesis must be entirely novel. If it is new, it must be welcomed and commendable by the people. The approach to the topic must be entirely new.

Moreover, If the topics are choosen from the sangam literature, the Government of Tamilnadu will offer the stipend to the researchers as the sangam literatures are considered as the classical literature.

He advised the participants to write the short stories, novels, poetries and drama and to publish them and further saying that they should study the post modern literatures. During an interaction session, He interacted with the our students and cleared their doubts. There were 50 P.G.students from different disciplines who participated in this seminar from our college. D. VE · SA - ALVARANTIAM . PG & RESEARCH DEPARTMENT OF TAMIL

Report

Object of this function

- > The relation between literature and society
- > The literature is the specimen of society
- To involve the students to study the Tamil literature and the programm is an eye opener to the students.

The PG & Research Department of Tamil organized a seminar on A Guidelines for research search in literature in R. A. College for Women, Tiruvarur on 12.09.22 at 10 a.m. Pro. Dr. S. Sridevi presidied over the function. Prof. Dr. K.Sarmila, Assistant professor, Department of Tamil welcomed the gathering and introduced the chief guest.

The chief guest of the function was Prof. Dr. Sowrnareka, Assistant professor in Tamil, Karanthai Tamilavel Uma Mahesvaranar Arts College, . She spoke, " on the research methodology and collection of relevant materials for carrying out the research.

She further said that the topic for the research is very important. If the materials are not available or scarce for the choosen topic, it will be tough for the researcher to finish his / her research. The researchers must concentrate on the availability of the data. Then he / she should know which websites are feasible to get the books to carry out the research.

The researchers must attend the seminars and symposiums wherever they will be held because they will enhance their knowledge. The researchers must see the university portals in which the guidence and guidelines are provided.

The university portals provide the lists of names of journals and magazines and through them the ideas for research will be obtained. The data must prior be collected. While doing the research ,the bibliographical details such as page number of the book ,author's name and publication 's name have to be mentioned in the thesis.

When the researcher wants to participate in the seminar, he / she should present the thesis which should be untold and unexplored sofar. The thesis must be entirely novel. If it is new, it must be welcomed and commendable by the people. The approach to the topic must be entirely new.

Moreover, If the topics are choosen from the sangam literature, the Government of Tamilnadu will offer the stipend to the researchers as the sangam literatures are considered as the classical literature.

She advised the participants to write the short stories, novels, poetries and drama and publish them and further saying that they should study the post modern literatures. During an interaction session, She interacted with the participants and cleared their doubts. There were 46 participants in this seminar. Prof. Ms.I.Amutha proposed the vote of thanks and the seminar concluded with the national anthem.

Outcome:

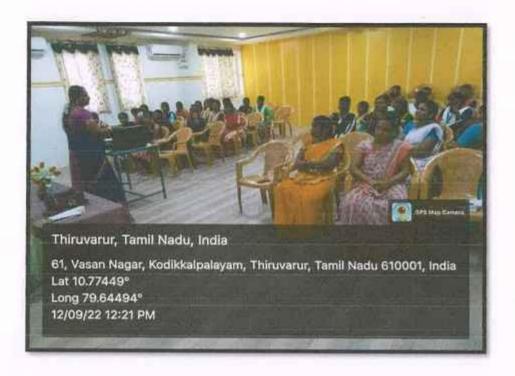

- The participant got the knowledge about research methodology and tools

Entrepreneurship skill Programme: Coffee with CEO "Law and Fiscal Policies for Entrepreneurship"

Report

Objectives of the Programme

- To create awareness about laws and concepts related to business
- To be aware of the government's policies and legal process

The Department of Management Studies, organized a webinar on Entrepreneurship skill Programme: Coffee with CEO titled "Law and fiscal policy for Entrepreneurship" on 18th September 2020, Lawyer S. Renuka MA, ML, (IPR), and Assistant Professor in Law, Government Law College, Trichy acted as a resource person. Ms. V. Renganayaki, Assistant professor started the Session with a welcome address. Lawyer S. Renuka delivered her lecture about Laws and Fiscal Policies for Entrepreneurship.

She talked about the Indian Contract Act, Partnership Act, Sales of Goods Act, and Companies Act. She discussed how the 2013 Companies Act enabled cross-border mergers with RBI approval and how it accelerated mergers and amalgamations. She also discussed the idea of one-person companies, a category of private corporations with just one director and shareholder. She outlined how to strike a balance between reducing a company's daily operations, retaining the protections required for individuals doing business with a company, such as creditors and investors, and setting up an efficient corporate governance structure to assure compliance.

Students asked about the rules and concepts that should be understood before beginning a firm as well as the laws that entrepreneurs should be aware of. She provided an extensive clarification of the student's query. This session helped to increase the knowledge about legal aspect of business among management studies students. The session was ended by Ms. T. Bhuvaneshwari, Assistant Professor with vote of Thanks.

Outcomes of the Programme

 Apart from the regular theoretical classes, students learnt some applicable knowledge and understanding of business laws from the case studies by the lawyer.

"THREE DAYS INTERNATIONAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME"

Date: 26.08.2020 to 28.08.2020

Platform: Google Meet

REPORT

A three-day international entrepreneurship development programme was organized by PG and Research Department of Biochemistry. Ms. Rabeeyammal, M. Fazlur Rahman, a student trainee at Innopharma Education in Sandy ford, County Dublin, Ireland, served as a resource person on the first day and provided information on Awesome Opportunities in Biochemistry. Dr R.Sumathi, Assistant Professor & Head, the Department of Biochemistry, R.A.College for Women welcomed the gathering and Dr.A.Vijayalakshmi, Assistant Professor of PG and Research Department of Biochemistry introduced the chief guest. In this session, she highlighted how to take use of the tremendous opportunities offered by biochemistry and transform an idea into a successful product in order to become a prosperous entrepreneur.

On the Second day, Dr. M.Chithra, Assistant Professor of Biochemistry, Agricultural College and Research Institute, Thanjavur delivered a lecture on "Medicinal Plants as Immune Boosters". DrR.Sumathi, Assistant Professor & Head, the Department of Biochemistry, R.A.College for Women welcomed the gathering and introduced the chief guest. The chief guest, Dr. M. Chithra explained that the immune system is a remarkable arrangement of particular organs and cells that allowed humans to defend themselves against unwanted responses. She said that to keep the body in homeostasis, it must function properly and the Immunomodulation properties are present in a variety of plants and their constituents and it could be added to diets to look into new treatments for better immunity to diseases.

Dr.S.Senthilkumar, Assistant Professor of Botany, National College (Autonomous) act as chief guest in afternoon session and gave an enlightened talk about some medicinal-plants available for pandemic disease (COVID-19) and the third day, Dr.S.P.Balasubramani, Nutraceutical, Functional Foods and Research Group, Centre for Viticulture and Small fruit Research, Florida, A & M University delivered a wonderful talk on Biotechnological application of Revitalizing Traditional Medicines. Dr.A.Vijayalakshmi, Assistant Professor of PG and Research Department of Biochemistry welcomed the gathering and introduced the chief guest.

Dr.S.P.Balasubramani, the chief guest explained in his lecture that traditional medicine(TM) is a necessary component of drug discovery and development. The majority of current therapeutically useful molecules are derived from TM. Traditional medicine in every nation has a long history of using herbal medicines, which are the oldest forms of medicine used to treat a variety of ailments. Traditional medicine will be the focus of several thrust areas of research in order to increase data on their quality, safety, and efficacy and meet the needs of modern consumers.

The revival of traditional medicine requires a paradigm shift in light of the preceding idea. Modern scientific methods, molecular tools, and strategies, in addition to these facts, necessitate the revival of traditional medicine. The students gained a deeper understanding of the opportunities available in the field of biochemistry, as well as the curative properties of medicinal plants, the mechanisms by which they elicit immune responses in living systems, and the scope and opportunities available in the pharmaceutical industry and research field. Finally three days Entrepreneurship Development Programme was concluded with vote of thanks and National anthem.

Webinar on Writing Research Protocol

Date: 23.05.2020

Time: 11.00am

Report

A research protocol is a physical record that details a research study. This document helps researchers conduct their studies as smoothly as possible without interruptions or impediments. A well-written research protocol addresses the research question and describes specific elements of the study, such as its methodology, design and objectives. Scientists who are conducting clinical research use a research protocol to clarify what they can and cannot study, which is especially important when they work.

A research protocol helps researchers plan their research work. Investigators can benefit from completing their research protocols before they start conducting research. Understanding how to write a research protocol can help an investigator conduct a successful study that they can use to address real-world issues. This seminar, aimed to provide instructions on how to write a research protocol and define what a research protocol is.

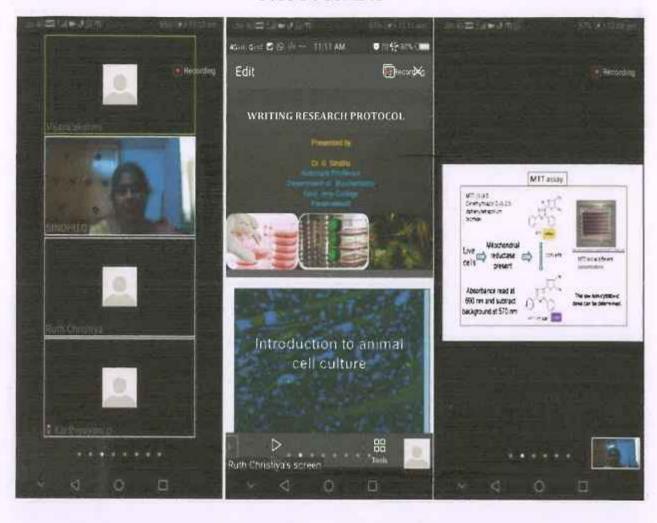

The Department of Biochemistry conducted a Webinar entitled on "writing Research protocol" on 23rd May 2020, Dr.R.Sumathi gave a welcome address and Dr.J.Jayachitra introduced the chief guest Dr.G.Sindhu, Assistant Professor, Department of Biochemistry, Govt Arts College, Paramakkudi to the participants. Dr.G.Sindhu delivered a lecture on "writing research protocol". She explained about general elements of research protocol Such as background, rationale, objective(s), design, methodology, statistical considerations and organization of project.

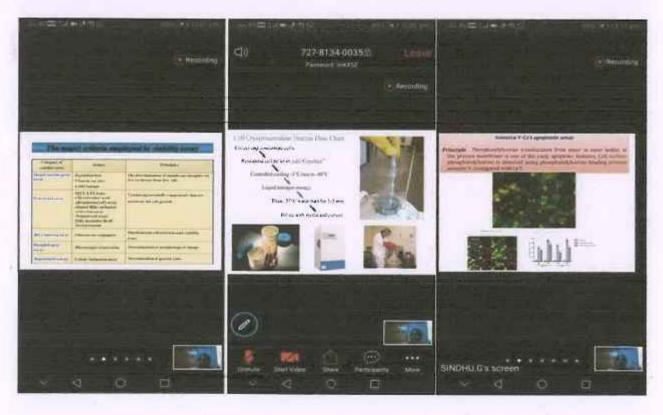

The Students got ideas about writing Research protocol and knew the technical knowledge about animal cell culture techniques that were useful to develop the animal model and the parameters analysis in cell lines and this webinar highlighted the importance of broad range of data analysis. The programme successfully end with vote of thanks and national anthem.

OBJECTIVE:

- · To create research skill
- · To-create awareness about research methodology in tamil
- · To create awe reness academic writing in tamil

PG& Research department of Tamil of R.A. College for Women, Tiruvarur conducted a webminar through an online platform on 11-05-2020 at 10 a.m. The program began with a prayer song. Dr. S. Sridevi, Principal ,RAC for Women presidied over the function and spoke on how to carry out the research and choosing the topic. Dr. G. Malarvizi welcomed the gathering and introduced the chief guest.

The chief guest of this seminar was Prof. Dr. A. Tamilarasi, Associate professor of Tamil, M. R. J. College, Mannargudi who was the key note speaker and she spoke on the research methodology and collection of relevant materials for carrying out the research.

She further said that the topic for the research is very important. If the materials are not available or scarce for the choosen topic, it will be tough for the researcher to finish his / her research. The researchers must concentrate on the availability of the data. Then he / she should know which websites are feasible to get the books to carry out the research.

The researchers must attend the seminars and symposiums wherever they will be held because they will enhance their knowledge. The researchers must see the university portals in which the guidence and guidelines are provided.

The university portals provide the lists of names of journals and magazines and through them the ideas for research will be obtained. The data must prior be collected. While doing the research ,the bibliographical details such as page number of the book ,author's name and publication 's name have to be mentioned in the thesis.

When the researcher wants to participate in the seminar, he / she should present the thesis which should be untold and unexplored sofar. The thesis must be entirely novel. If it is new, it must be welcomed and commendable by the people. The approach to the topic must be entirely new.

Moreover, If the topics are choosen from the sangam literature, the Government of Tamilnadu will offer the stipend to the researchers as the sangam literatures are considered as the classical literature.

She advised the participants to write the short stories, novels, poetries and drama and publish them and further saying that they should study the post modern literatures. During an interaction session, She interacted with the participants and cleared their doubts. There were 56 participants who participated in this seminar from various colleges. Prof. Dr. Ms. Anitha proposed the vote of thanks and the seminar concluded with the national anthem.

SEMINAR ON METHODS AND TECHNIQUES IN RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

Date: 05.08.2019

Time: 10.30am

REPORT

Research is a process to discover new knowledge to find answers to a question. The word research has two parts re (again) and search (find) which denote that we are taking up an activity to look into an aspect once again or we want to look for some new information about something. Research comprises defining and redefining problems, formulation of hypothesis; collection, organizing and evaluation of data; and reaching conclusions. Research methods are the methods or techniques employed by researchers in conducting research operations.

Research methodology is scientific and systematic way to solve research problems. A researcher has to design his methodology, i.e., in addition to the knowledge of methods or techniques, he has to apply the methodology as well. The methodology may differ from problem to problem. It is important for the researcher to know not only the research methods necessary for the research undertaken but also the methodology. Thus, the scope of research methodology is wider than research methods. In a way, research methodology deals with the research methods and takes into consideration the logic behind the methods.

A research methodology gives research legitimacy and provides scientifically sound findings. It also provides a detailed plan that helps to keep researchers on track, making the process smooth, effective and manageable. By keeping this view in mind, The PG and Research Department of Biochemistry organized a seminar on "Methods and Techniques in Research Methodology". Dr.P. Surya Assistant Professor & Head, the Department of Biochemistry, Annai College of Arts and Science, Kumbakonam was invited as a Chief Guest. DrR. Sumathi, Assistant Professor & Head, the Department of Biochemistry, R.A. College for Women welcomed the gathering and Dr.A. Vijayalakshmi, Assistant Professor of PG and Research Department of Biochemistry introduced the chief guest. She emphasized the value of research in the development of the country and recommended that everyone keep their research skills up to date by actively participating in seminars and workshops to learn about different techniques and procedures.

Our chief guest delivered an enlightened lecture on various methodologies available in Research area. She explained about both qualitative and quantitative methodologies. She explained as the research methodology acts as the nerve center because the entire research is bounded by it, and to perform good research work, the internal and external environment has to follow the right research methodology process. She also taught the methods of data collection and data analysis for analyzing Research parameters.

The knowledge of research methodology provides training to new researchers and will enables them to do research properly. It will equip the researcher with the tools that help them to make the observations objectively. The knowledge of methodology will help the research consumers to evaluate research and make rational decisions. This Programme was really helpful in enhancing our student's knowledge of research methodology. Several questions were raised and clarification was made by resource person. Finally, the seminar ended with vote of thanks and National anthem.
